RE: Jamie Masters – When am I going to receive your letter explaining why the Canadian Human Rights Act does not apply to me?

Jamie,

Received a call from Jamie Masters with the Canadian Human Rights Commission saying the Canadian Human Rights Act does not apply to me!

And to prove his point, Jamie Masters spoke a bunch of “gobbly-gook” to show that the Canadian Human Rights Act does not apply to me!

Jamie Masters, please include this “gobbly-gook” in your letter!

Jamie Masters also said that so what if a false story [based on RCMP lies at the 1976 inquest] is floating around the Internet on Sergey Brin’s Google web sites – these things happen – tough luck?

Jamie Masters, would you kindly include that in your letter to me!

Oh, by the way, I have been writing about these illegal acts for years as part of dealing with the PTSD – Chronic Types caused by these RCMP lies since 1976.

In recent studies, including one by Gail Ironson, MD, PhD, from the University of Miami, suspected that writing about trauma could reduce PTSD symptoms and depression.

Cognitive Processing Therapy, Matthew Tull, PhD
April 17, 2013:

Writing Proves to Be Therapeutic for Post-Traumatic Stress. Dutch researchers found that writing therapy "resulted in significant and substantial short-term reductions" of PTS and comorbid depression.

These conflicts are called "stuck points" and are addressed through, among other techniques, writing about the traumatic event.

Unfortunately for Jamie Masters, since receiving his call saying the Canadian Human Rights Act does not apply to me, Jamie Masters has become part of that Cognitive Processing Therapeutic Writing for my PTSD – Chronic Type!

Jamie Masters has also given me another “stuck-point” to work through – specifically Jamie Masters’ comment to me that so what if a false story [based on RCMP lies at the 1976 inquest] is floating around the Internet on Sergey Brin’s Google web sites – these things happen – tough luck?

Kindly include this in your letter to me!

Finally, Jamie Masters made reference that I did not successfully sue the RCMP – that I only received an out-of-court settlement?

That seems to imply that Jamie Masters will do anything to protect the RCMP – so just how impartial is Jamie Masters when it comes to my complaint about a false story based on 1976 RCMP lies on the Internet!!

Obviously Jamie Masters is biased!!

Please include this explanation in your letter to me!

And, let's ask the general public if a $275,000 settlement is not a win against the RCMP?

Unless they have their head stuck up the arse of the RCMP, I would bet “dollars to donuts” [as my father used to say] that the majority of the general public would say that a $275,000 settlement is not a win against the RCMP?

Jamie Masters, why don't you also include this in your letter to me!

Thank you,

Mr. Justice William J. Vancise,

Thank you for your reply dated 07 April, 2014 from your agent, Nancy Laframboise – Manager Corporate Services Copyright Board of Canada [see Items below]

In it, your agent Nancy Laframboise, Manager Corporate Services, has readily admitted that each of these individuals, entities, organizations, corporations etc. have committed an ILLEGAL ACT, in their initial and continuing violation of the Copyright Act of Canada, in their initial use, re-publication, and loading to the Internet as recently as 11 April, 2014 WITHOUT having permission from the Copyright Board of Canada – which your agent Nancy Laframboise readily admits NONE OF THEM HAD!

Sanfu Chen – of the Squamish Public Library
Darby Love – of the Squamish Public Library
The Squamish Public Library – which is still in existence
The Squamish Chief Newspaper – which is still in existence
Google.ca – which is still in existence

“The company that owned the paper doesn't exist anymore so while the library has verbal permission to use the archives of the Squamish Times there is no formal document making it clear so an application is in front of the copyright board seeking formal acknowledgement that the library can publish the newspaper archive online, says Sanfu Chen”

Husband reluctant witness .at Mallenby inquest - digitalcollections.ca
www.digitalcollections.ca/.../r/.../19760401_Squamish_Times.pdf

In addition, the BC Access Department for the Minister of Education responsible for libraries in British Columbia makes it perfectly clear in their letter dated 28 April, 2014 by Maxine Vanzetta that the Minister of Education gave NO PERMISSION, WRITTEN OR VERBAL, for these people /organizations to use, re-publication, and loading to the Internet as recently as today [See Item below].

As such, when is the Copyright Board of Canada going to prosecute Sanfu Chen, Darby Love, the Squamish Times, the Squamish Library and Google.ca for violating the Copyright Board of Canada as recently as 2014 [see Items below]!

And Terry Mallenby was not reluctant witness, that was an RCMP lie [see Items below, 4a to 7].

Dear Terry Mallenby:

Re: Request for Access to Records
Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIPPA)

I am writing further to your request received by the Ministry of Education. Your request is for:

All information related to the verbal permission to violate the Copyright Act of Canada, to use, re-publish and upload to the internet when no official approval was given by the Copyright Board of Canada to: Sanfu Chen & Derby Love, The Squamish Public Library; The Squamish Chief Newspaper; Google.ca.

Although a thorough search was conducted, no records were located in response to your request. Your file is now closed.

If you have any questions regarding your request, please contact Rhianna Begley, the analyst assigned to your request, at (250) 387-4383. This number can be reached toll-free by calling from Vancouver, 604-660-2421, or from elsewhere in BC, 1-800-663-7867 and asking to be transferred to (250) 387-4383.

A complete copy of FOIPPA is available online at:

Item #4b

The letters and numbers [P3ai] at the bottom of the above noted letter refers to the evidence the Terry Mallenby submitted to the Federal Court of Canada when he SUCCESSFULLY SUED the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and the Federal Government of Canada!!

The RCMP didn't like this and has harassed the author, his wife and children since that time!!!

DEFENCE

First of all in respect to the arrangements and the arrest of this man, he was not represented by counsel on any of the submissions and I would have respectfully would have desired an opportunity to have made that representation for him in respect to that warrant, that was issued in respect to this matter. Secondly, I was completely unaware of the arrest.' I was at a location where a phone was not available readily, and I was not aware of the fact that this matter of the arrest had come on. It was not a question of arranging at my convenience, it was a matter of him appearing in my absence, and that knowledge that I was going to be absent for awhile was information that the Crown had.

DEFENCE

Mr. Coroner, there is one point I feel I must raise before the jury are excused. I wish to stress that I have reviewed the transcript of the proceedings of the last occasion we were here, and I was disturbed in the extreme to read of the comments made on the voluntariness of my client and I feel that no prejudicial leanings should be taken from that. My client was not notified or asked to appear.

Chapter 2

Did the Illegal Verbal Permission come from a psychopath?

Dr. Dutton from Oxford's Magdalen College speaks about Psychopaths finding their way into the police force cited in Michael Posner's article, published in the Globe and Mail on Friday, Oct. 26 2012.

There is an abundance of evidence that RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle appears to be one of those Psychopaths.

It's very apparent that RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle showed Psychopathic tendencies when he or the RCMP told the BC Coroner in 1976 that Terry Mallenby was an "unwilling witness", that was a lie.

In fact, the Coroner in 1976 apologized to Terry Mallenby for listening to those RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle / RCMP lies.

It's also very apparent that RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle showed Psychopathic tendencies when he personally in 1979 when he wrote a letter calling Terry Mallenby a "murderer" and other perverted statements.

In fact this 1979 letter by RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle formed the basis of Terry Mallenby's Federal Court Suit against the Canadian Government, the Queen, the RCMP, and RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle which he won thanks to the efforts of one decent lawyer.

In fact, due to RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle's lies, Terry Mallenby ended up with a Canadian Government approved [mental] disability pension – PTSD Chronic Type in 1980 we believe it was and re-approved in 1998.

Terry Mallenby has the original Coroner Inquest report sent to him by the Coroner's office of British Columbia Canada and the Coroner personally apologized to Terry Mallenby for listening to the lies by the RCMP / RCMP Staff Sgt John Thomas Randle!!

The letters and numbers [P3ai] at the bottom of the above noted letter refers to the evidence the Terry Mallenby submitted to the Federal Court of Canada when he SUCCESSFULLY SUED the Royal Canadian Mounted Police and the Federal Government of Canada!!

The RCMP didn't like this and has harassed the author, his wife and children since that time!!!

DEFENCE

First of all in respect to the arrangements and the arrest of this man, he was not represented by counsel on any of the submissions and I would have respectfully would have desired an opportunity to have made that representation for him in respect to that warrant, that was issued in respect to this matter. Secondly, I was completely unaware of the arrest.' I was at a location where a phone was not available readily, and I was not aware of the fact that this matter of the arrest had come on. It was not a question of arranging at my convenience, it was a matter of him appearing in my absence, and that knowledge that I was going to be absent for awhile was information that the Crown had.

DEFENCE

Mr. Coroner, there is one point I feel I must raise before the jury are excused. I wish to stress that I have reviewed the transcript of the proceedings of the last occasion we were here, and I was disturbed in the extreme to read of the comments made on the voluntariness of my client and I feel that no prejudicial leanings should be taken from that. My client was not notified or asked to appear.

The RCMP put some bull-shit about the Terry Mallenby – this time that he was an unwilling witness which is what the RCMP / RCMP Staff Sgt John Thomas Randle [through the Crown] told the Coroner in 1976 causing Terry Mallenby to miss his wife's funeral!!!

DEFENCE

Dear Sir or Madame:

Re:

I am writing a letter on behalf of _____ one of my patients who suffers from a grievous mental malady. He has been previously accepted for CPP disability.

His case is complicated. He is a very accomplished gentleman who has two advanced degrees including a Ph.D. and yet cannot work. He spends his time largely sequestered at home writing notes and letters and suffers extreme anxiety if he attempts to go outside.

He is very secretive about events that happened in the past but evidently he sustained a major personal loss in 1976 and ever since then has never recovered. He has paranoid ideas and symptoms of marked anxiety. I have been treating him as best I could as a family physician but felt his symptoms were aggravated and complicated enough that I referred him to a psychiatrist.

_____ suffers from many symptoms of post-traumatic stress disorder and unresolved grief.....fear, guilt, horror, dreams of traumatic content, social avoidancy, decreased interest, impaired memory, irritability, anger, increased vigilance, sense of futility regarding the future, some paranoid ideations.

Terry Mallenby was diagnosed with a multitude of disorders as a consequence of RCMP and Federal Government illegal acts, harassment and other abuse.

Dear Francoise,

Thank you for your letter of October 1, 1996

_____ gives a 20 year history of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder following the homicide of a colleague in a prison uprising and also the murder _____ in 1976. I believe you are well aware of these events and that _____ was falsely accused of the latter crime. The effect on his family relationships and on him are also well documented. _____ has become very suspicious of others especially Government agencies and is somewhat paranoid. This paranoia has made it difficult for him to accept psychological help as a degree of trust is almost essential. He seems to have made numerous attempts to improve his occupational situation, but his difficulties dealing with others always overwhelm him.

When seen, _____ exhibited and described numerous signs and symptoms of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder including marked agitation whenever the subject of the murder _____ loomed. He described fear, guilt and horror, traumatic dreams, social avoidance, loss of interest, poor memory for details of the murder, irritability, anger, increased vigilance, a sense of futility re. the future, difficulties with emotional involvement, and arousal by recollections of the trauma including those precipitated by news stories of similar events. In interviews, he is often tearful, distraught and agitated.

Diagnostically, he has

1)	Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder -Chronic Type
2)	Social Phobia -secondary to 1)

Terry Mallenby was diagnosed with a multitude of disorders as a consequence of RCMP and Federal Government illegal acts, harassment and other abuse.

Subject:

As per your request, I reviewed the file of _____ to determine the basis for granting him the disability benefits.

You are well aware that we are guided by the CPP Legislation which states that a person must be suffering from a physical and/or mental disability which is both severe and prolonged to be eligible to receive disability benefits. Severe means that the person must be incapable of pursuing any substantially gainful occupation regularly. Prolonged means that the incapacity to work at any substantially gainful occupation will likely be long continued and of indefinite duration. To assess such disability we have to ascertain the limiting loss or absence of the capacity to meet the occupational demands according to the regulatory requirements described above.

_____ seems to have satisfied the legislation and in our judgement he is incapable to carry out any occupational demands.

_____ will be well advised to consult his treating physicians if he wishes to find out about any particular medical condition, who will be in a better position to explain his specific question.

Hope this answers some of your problems. Please do not hesitate to contact me should you need any other information.

What good is a Coroner Inquest Judgement when you have people like this ignore the Verdict?

Senator Larry Campbell, former Chief Coroner, former RCMP Officer says he doesn't give a shite about 1976 Squamish Coroner Inquest Judgement – the Royal Canadian Mounted Police will harass Terry Mallenby, his wife and children forever!!

Who to hell is Senator Larry W. Campbell that he doesn't care about the missing and murdered in Squamish, British Columbia?

Author's Note: This Larry Campbell has a long career of law enforcement and death investigation, yet with respect to the missing and murdered in Squamish, British Columbia he says -

On 2013-07-02, Larry Campbell sent an email to the author -

Senator Larry Campbell, who is a former RCMP officer, wrote –

And here's the missing and murdered in Squamish, British Columbia, Canada that Senator Larry Campbell, former RCMP officer, doesn't give "two hoots" about:

SQUAMISH # 1

Oct. 29, '85: Rachel Turley, 20

Turley's body was found in a wooded area near Squamish. She had been sexually assaulted, beaten and strangled. Police say she was known to them as a Granville Mall "street person" who once worked as a prostitute.

Body found on Bowen Island

By Jane Seyd, North Shore News May 23, 2012 6:34 AM

POLICE investigating the discovery of a body in a bushy area of Bowen Island say the remains are likely not those of missing Squamish teen Jodi Henrickson.

"We don't feel it's connected to that case," said Sgt. Jennifer Pound, spokeswoman for the RCMP's Integrated Homicide Investigation Team. Pound said investigators ruled out that the body was Henrickson early on, although she declined to say how police did that.

Bowen Island RCMP were called out Friday at around 2 p.m. by a local resident who had discovered the body on his land, a wooded property in the 1,000 block of Harding Road.

An autopsy is to be performed Tuesday to try to identify the victim and the likely cause of death. Suicide remains a possibility, as does the chance that the body was dumped there.

"There are no obvious signs of injury," said Pound.

So far investigators have not confirmed whether the body - which was badly decomposed - is male or female. "We believe the body was there for quite some time," said Pound.

Lloyd Harding, who lives on Harding Road, said he was walking down to his mailbox with his son's dog at the end of last week when the Jack Russell terrier tried to drag him into the bush.

Harding said he noticed a bad smell in the area. "I thought someone had hit a deer he said."

Harding said he's walked right by the area where the body was found before but didn't see anything or notice any smell in the area before last week's spell of hot weather.

Police are currently checking missing persons reports to see if they can help identify the remains.

Henrickson, then 17, disappeared three years ago on June 20, 2009 after leaving a house party on Bowen Island with her ex-boyfriend Gavin Arnott. Neither Henrickson nor any signs of her have shown up since then, despite several searches by both police and volunteers.

Police have repeatedly said they think Henrickson met with foul play and never left the island.

Harding said the quiet community is "shocked and very concerned" by Friday's discovery.

Furry Creek, BC Okay, I am going to post some more of my findings, unfortunately, not much to find. I will post the info over a few posts. This first lot is not in the date sequence as originally listed. I may have found a common thread in these ones. Although they are listed as Squamish/Vancouver cases, when I looked at the death registration information on Ancestry.ca I found all of their locations of death were within 18km of a place called Furry Creek, BC. I have included one that was listed as Squamish as it seems to be in the same area. I am not sure if these young ladies actually died/were found near Furry Creek or if they were perhaps, from there, and therefore, their deaths were listed for that location. I have to break this one into two posts as the computer is fussing

1. 12 April 73 Helen Hopcroft, age 17, Vancouver

Her death was registered as 13 May 73, Furry Creek, BC

There was an obituary for her in the Winnipeg Free Press 7 June 73

2. 17 Feb 75 Gayle Rogers, Vancouver, BC

If it is the same young lady, found "Gail Sandra Rogers" Date of registered death, 7 Mar 75, she was born in 1949 so she was 26,

her death is registered as "Squamish, BC"

SQUAMISH # 7

Sunday afternoon a group of hikers found a dead body near a hiking trail on the side of Mamquam Road in Squamish. "It appears the man was met with foul play," said spokeswoman Sgt. Jennifer Pound. "It does appear to be a homicide." Pound also refused to comment on media reports that the man's body was found beaten and duct-taped.

Kim Bolan has reported the identity of the body is that of William Woo from Surrey who was an associate of the East Vancouver hells angels but more recently went over to the other side. Now he's in a body bag. I wonder who the prime suspects are? If the East Vancouver chapter of the Hells angels contract a murder, that makes them a criminal organization guilty of murder. I don't know about the Duhre Daiquiris but Lotus, now there is some old school credibility right there. They are more than capable of professional payback.

Beaten and duck taped. Yeah that would imply foul play. It reminds me of two other cases in Squamish. One was a guy named Alex Larsen who was run over by a truck because he was lying in the middle of the road. It's so strange and tragic. Yes it's possible he got drunk or high and passed out. Yet we've never heard a word either way. We don't know if he was beaten and dumped there or if he was walking on the side of the road and a car hit him which was why he was lying in the middle of the road before the bus ran him over. The case comes to mind and I wish there was more pieces to that puzzle. They say he had made a decision to turn his life around. Just like Britney Irving. Tragic indeed.

Of course there's that other bizarre case in Squamish, the murder of Javan Luke Dowling. Three drug dealers were driving in a car in Vancouver. One of the drug dealers, shot one of the other drug dealers in the head and the third drug dealer watched the shooter cut off Dowling's head and dismembered his body. The two surviving drug dealers buried the body in two separate locations in Squamish. Mihaly Illes was alleged to be the shooter while Derrick Madinski helped him bury the body. Derrick Madinski went with Joe Brallic to LA where Joe was ripped off and murdered.

Meanwhile in that same original article about a new dead body being found in Squamish it later stated there was another shooting in Surrey near the corner of 111A Avenue and 146th Street at about 2: 40 a.m. on Sunday. It didn't even make it's own head line. Kinda sad. The point is violent crime is continuing and as the papers also report the court system is currently in crisis. That was before Harper's disproportionate crime bill sent the fragile system into chaos.

THE FACTS [1976 To the present]

RE: Our joint complaint under Canadian Human Rights Act, the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, and any other Legal Jurisdiction that would cover these infractions of our individual and joint rights against, the RCMP, the RCMP Commissioner, the Prime Minister's Office, the Copyright Board, the Privacy Commission, and the Canadian Human Rights Commission and any other individual or organization in Canada or elsewhere due to the 2014 publication of 1976 RCMP lies against Terry Mallenby [a mental disability pensioner, PTSD Chronic Type] on the Internet, having a direct impact on our individual and joint rights under the laws of Canada and Internationally.

Item #1

In recent studies, including one by Gail Ironson, MD, PhD, from the University of Miami, suspected that writing about trauma could reduce PTSD symptoms and depression.

Cognitive Processing Therapy, Matthew Tull, PhD
April 17, 2013:

Writing Proves to Be Therapeutic for Post-Traumatic Stress. Dutch researchers found that writing therapy "resulted in significant and substantial short-term reductions" of PTS and comorbid depression.

These conflicts are called "stuck points" and are addressed through, among other techniques, writing about the traumatic event.

Another event in 1975 that had a profound effect on Terry Mallenby was the death of fellow Classification Officer Mary Steinhauser and the apparent cover-up by the Canadian Government of her apparent purposeful murder.

As a “layman”, part of dealing with his Post Traumatic Stress – Chronic Type Terry Mallenby ironically took to writing about the RCMP false statements, harassment, illegal, acts:

A Preponderance of Evidence Identifies the RCMP [RCMP Commissioner Robert Paulson] and the Canadian Government [Prime Minister Stephen Harper] as suppressing the “therapeutic” writings of Terry Mallenby in his efforts to deal with his Post Traumatic Stress – Chronic Type duly identified and ratified by the Canada Pension Plan, resulting in Terry Mallenby receiving a [mental] disability pension for years [see Appendices below].

This interference to Terry Mallenby’s “therapeutic writings” being suppressed by the RCMP [RCMP Commissioner Robert Paulson] and the Canadian Government [Prime Minister Stephen Harper] is a direct violation of the Canadian Human Rights Act, the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, including the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and forms part of the known facts in our joint complaint to the Canadian Human Rights Commission.

The only problem is that because of the RCMP, RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle lies, Terry Mallenby missed his wife's funeral!!

You can imagine the anguish this caused Terry Mallenby!!

And to prove that RCMP Staff Sgt John Thomas Randle is a liar – Terry Mallenby used Randle's lies contained in a letter in 1979 by RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle to successfully sue the Queen of England, the Canada Government and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police including RCMP Staff Sgt John Thomas Randle [see Appendices below].

1976 Coroner's Inquest held in Squamish, British Columbia, Canada ruled the homicide was by Person or Persons Unknown

The Coroner apologized to Terry Mallenby for listening to the RCMP / RCMP Staff Sgt John Thomas Randle that he was an “unwilling witness”!

Currently in 2014 a Preponderance of Evidence Identifies the RCMP [RCMP Commissioner Robert Paulson] and the Canadian Government [Prime Minister Stephen Harper] has had these same 1976 RCMP / RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle lies that Terry Mallenby was an “unwilling witness” uploaded to Sergey Brin's Google.ca and all Google web site as very apparent payback for Terry Mallenby successfully suing the Royal Canadian Mounted Police over RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle 1979 letter where Terry Mallenby received a $275,000 out of court settlement to put a stop to all actions by the RCMP and the Canadian Government in their Canadian Human Rights Act violations, the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms violations, their Universal Declaration of Human Rights and any other violations under any other legislation that may be applicable!

1979 Not satisfied with their lies in 1976, RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle writes a letter saying that the husband was a “murderer” and a copy is given to John Gomery to make sure Terry Mallenby remained unemployed

In 2013, Terry Mallenby receives a phone call from Marshal S. purporting to be RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle’s son who Randle apparently abandoned at birth?

Although the young man only wanted to know Randle’s medical history [typical of adopted children], apparently this RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle told the young fellow to “piddle-off”?

Credence is given to Marshal S. because he mentioned that his friend from his boyhood days in Fort McMurray, Alberta - Brian Jean had apparently put him onto Terry Mallenby, because Terry Mallenby had written about RCMP Randle!

In fact an email from Brian Jean, Member of Parliament, confirmed this boyhood friendship:

➔ Marshall S

Frances Jean sent it to me on Jan 28, 2014, 6:10 PM

From: Frances Jean <fkjean@ccgfortmcmurray.ca>

Brian Jean is out of the country and asked me to answer your letter regarding Marshall S.

Brian knew Marshall 30 – 40 years ago when he lived as a young boy in Fort McMurray.

Since that time he has had a couple of phone calls from him and an email.

I hope this is the information you require, but Brian cannot verify any information about Marshall.

Mrs. F.K. Jean

1979 Terry Mallenby makes a complaint to the Canadian Human Rights Commission and later through access to information finds M.J. Hauser of the Correctional Service of Canada in memo(s) also says that Terry Mallenby was a “murderer” to make sure he remained unemployed!

Instead of verifying this other lie about Terry Mallenby, the Canadian Human Rights Commission did nothing about his complaint permitting the RCMP and the Canadian Government to continue their violations to this very day.

- 1980 Terry Mallenby being unemployed seeks a disability pension [Canada Pension Plan] using RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle 1979 letter, M.J. - 1981 Terry Mallenby being unemployed again seeks relief from his Canada Student Loans, the Judge not being John Gomery, and his request is approved!
- 1981 The RCMP fabricate more “bull shit” about Terry Mallenby to railroad him into jail!
- 1985 Terry Mallenby re-marries!

Very interesting, the family of the bride received an “anonymous” letter trying to kybosh the wedding?

RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle is well noted for writing letters – did he write this letter too

However, Terry Mallenby had already revealed the 1976 lies by RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle and his suit against the Canadian Government and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police!

Those that attended the wedding said it was one of the nicest they had ever been to!

An interesting side-piece:

You see, the sister of his brother-in-law’s wife married into the Royal Family:

Montrealer Autumn Kelly weds Queen's eldest grandson
Last Updated: Saturday, May 17, 2008

Canadian Autumn Kelly wed the Queen's eldest grandson, Peter Phillips, on Saturday in a ceremony in St. George's Chapel at Windsor Castle attended by about 300 guests, including 70 from Canada.

Kelly grew up in Pointe-Claire, Que., in the largely English-speaking West Island region of Montreal. After attending McGill University [BA majoring in East Asian studies], she worked as a management consultant. She is now employed as a personal assistant to British broadcaster and television personality Michael Parkinson.

Terry Mallenby also attended McGill University, obtaining a BSW and Management Certificate in Social Services Management.

All of Terry Mallenby's in-laws attended the Royal Wedding, meeting the Queen and Prince Philip.

- 1990 After 14 years of accumulating evidence, Terry successfully sues the Canadian Government, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, the Queen, and RCMP S/Sgt John Thomas Randle over his 1979 letter [see Appendices below].
- 1990 Terry Mallenby was hired by the Newfoundland Social Services Department as a Social Worker.

Terry Mallenby blew the whistle on the lax security at the Whitbourne Centre run by Newfoundland Social Service Minister Kay Young.

Let's look a little closer at this RCMP 'bull' about Terry Mallenby's son?

Instead of hiring a clean-cut recruit like Terry Mallenby's son, incredibly the RCMP started hiring drug convicted individuals:

The RCMP, which is on a hiring blitz, will now turn a blind eye to some indiscretions by its applicants, including some drug activities, CBC News has learned.

An internal memo obtained by CBC News reveals the RCMP has changed its policy on drug use "to permit consideration of mitigating factors in all cases of criminal activity, which may include drug trafficking, etc."

Well the reaction to this ridiculous RCMP idea came out good and strong in the "Story Comments" section:

This is such a joke! You can't have criminals being police officers! What are these people on?

I thought the RCMP already hired from the bottom of the barrel? What is left?

Sure, relax the rules and give each new officer 2 tasers. Then they can be twice as dangerous to the public.

I think the standards are too low now. Look at the four liars from Vancouver.

I cannot see how 'lowering the standards' to help in qualifying more candidates for the RCMP is 'a step in the right direction'. We should be seeking better quality people for the force, reliable people with a clean background not folks who have committed indiscretions, minor or otherwise. RCMP Officers carry guns, tasers etc. and have a great responsibility to society. We need the very best candidates possible.

RCMP still had some credibility they could find credible applicants. I certainly don't paint all officers with the same brush but the actions of some officers, and how those actions were handled by the institution, have really damaged perceptions of the RCMP. Before looking at lower standards for applicants they should look at higher standards for themselves.

2010 Did apparent RCMP conspirator Manitoba Health Minister Theresa Oswald purposefully accept lies from the “cool kids gang” to harass, isolate and discriminate against Terry Mallenby’s daughter.

Instead, what kind of person does Diane Finley's Department support in their claim for unemployment benefits – AN ABSOLUTE FRAUDSTER!!!!

Diane Finley's Department cite on "The Index of Jurisprudence - A Supplement to the Digest of Benefit Entitlement Principles – Decision 74065

Claimant was a driver for the employer, who dismissed him because he had used the company's credit card to buy gasoline for his personal automobile. He was filmed at the gas station and a representative of the employer saw the video. The employer wished to press charges against claimant, which was eventually done. The BoR's decision was based on material placed before it; and it did not ignore any material elements. The employers often feel that they have proved claimant's misconduct. However, what they consider bad behaviour sufficient to be cause for dismissal does not necessarily meet the notion of "misconduct" within the meaning of the Act. The employers appeal is dismissed.

WHAT???

Someone commits fraud – yet Diane Finley's Department says not misconduct and approves him for unemployment benefits???

But not Terry Mallenby's wife who was following Diane Finley's own Department rules:

*29. For the purposes of sections 30 to 33
c. just cause for voluntarily leaving an employment or taking leave from an employment exists if the claimant had no reasonable alternative to leaving or taking leave, having regard to all the circumstances, including any of the following:*

ii. obligation to accompany a spouse, common-law partner or dependent child to another residence,

Here's the missing and murdered in Squamish, British Columbia, Canada that Senator Larry Campbell, former RCMP officer, doesn't give "two hoots" about:

SQUAMISH # 1

Oct. 29, '85: Rachel Turley, 20

Turley's body was found in a wooded area near Squamish. She had been sexually assaulted, beaten and strangled. Police say she was known to them as a Granville Mall "street person" who once worked as a prostitute.

Body found on Bowen Island

By Jane Seyd, North Shore News May 23, 2012 6:34 AM

POLICE investigating the discovery of a body in a bushy area of Bowen Island say the remains are likely not those of missing Squamish teen Jodi Henrickson.

"We don't feel it's connected to that case," said Sgt. Jennifer Pound, spokeswoman for the RCMP's Integrated Homicide Investigation Team. Pound said investigators ruled out that the body was Henrickson early on, although she declined to say how police did that.

Bowen Island RCMP were called out Friday at around 2 p.m. by a local resident who had discovered the body on his land, a wooded property in the 1,000 block of Harding Road.

An autopsy is to be performed Tuesday to try to identify the victim and the likely cause of death. Suicide remains a possibility, as does the chance that the body was dumped there.

"There are no obvious signs of injury," said Pound.

So far investigators have not confirmed whether the body - which was badly decomposed - is male or female. "We believe the body was there for quite some time," said Pound.

Lloyd Harding, who lives on Harding Road, said he was walking down to his mailbox with his son's dog at the end of last week when the Jack Russell terrier tried to drag him into the bush.

Harding said he noticed a bad smell in the area. "I thought someone had hit a deer he said."

Harding said he's walked right by the area where the body was found before but didn't see anything or notice any smell in the area before last week's spell of hot weather.

Police are currently checking missing persons reports to see if they can help identify the remains.

Henrickson, then 17, disappeared three years ago on June 20, 2009 after leaving a house party on Bowen Island with her ex-boyfriend Gavin Arnott. Neither Henrickson nor any signs of her have shown up since then, despite several searches by both police and volunteers.

Police have repeatedly said they think Henrickson met with foul play and never left the island.

Harding said the quiet community is "shocked and very concerned" by Friday's discovery.

Furry Creek, BC Okay, I am going to post some more of my findings, unfortunately, not much to find. I will post the info over a few posts. This first lot is not in the date sequence as originally listed. I may have found a common thread in these ones. Although they are listed as Squamish/Vancouver cases, when I looked at the death registration information on Ancestry.ca I found all of their locations of death were within 18km of a place called Furry Creek, BC. I have included one that was listed as Squamish as it seems to be in the same area. I am not sure if these young ladies actually died/were found near Furry Creek or if they were perhaps, from there, and therefore, their deaths were listed for that location. I have to break this one into two posts as the computer is fussing

1. 12 April 73 Helen Hopcroft, age 17, Vancouver
Her death was registered as 13 May 73, Furry Creek, BC
There was an obituary for her in the Winnipeg Free Press 7 June 73

2. 17 Feb 75 Gayle Rogers, Vancouver, BC
If it is the same young lady, found "Gail Sandra Rogers" Date of registered death, 7 Mar 75, she was born in 1949 so she was 26, her death is registered as "Squamish, BC"

SQUAMISH # 7

Sunday afternoon a group of hikers found a dead body near a hiking trail on the side of Mamquam Road in Squamish. "It appears the man was met with foul play," said spokeswoman Sgt. Jennifer Pound. "It does appear to be a homicide." Pound also refused to comment on media reports that the man's body was found beaten and duct-taped.

Kim Bolan has reported the identity of the body is that of William Woo from Surrey who was an associate of the East Vancouver hells angels but more recently went over to the other side. Now he's in a body bag. I wonder who the prime suspects are? If the East Vancouver chapter of the Hells angels contract a murder, that makes them a criminal organization guilty of murder. I don't know about the Duhre Daiquiris but Lotus, now there is some old school credibility right there. They are more than capable of professional payback.

Beaten and duck taped. Yeah that would imply foul play. It reminds me of two other cases in Squamish. One was a guy named Alex Larsen who was run over by a truck because he was lying in the middle of the road. It's so strange and tragic. Yes it's possible he got drunk or high and passed out. Yet we've never heard a word either way. We don't know if he was beaten and dumped there or if he was walking on the side of the road and a car hit him which was why he was lying in the middle of the road before the bus ran him over. The case comes to mind and I wish there was more pieces to that puzzle. They say he had made a decision to turn his life around. Just like Britney Irving. Tragic indeed.

Of course there's that other bizarre case in Squamish, the murder of Javan Luke Dowling. Three drug dealers were driving in a car in Vancouver. One of the drug dealers, shot one of the other drug dealers in the head and the third drug dealer watched the shooter cut off Dowling's head and dismembered his body. The two surviving drug dealers buried the body in two separate locations in Squamish. Mihaly Illes was alleged to be the shooter while Derrick Madinski helped him bury the body. Derrick Madinski went with Joe Brallic to LA where Joe was ripped off and murdered.

Meanwhile in that same original article about a new dead body being found in Squamish it later stated there was another shooting in Surrey near the corner of 111A Avenue and 146th Street at about 2: 40 a.m. on Sunday. It didn't even make it's own head line. Kinda sad. The point is violent crime is continuing and as the papers also report the court system is currently in crisis. That was before Harper's disproportionate crime bill sent the fragile system into chaos.

Did the RCMP have the Canadian Military purposefully issue Terry Mallenby's daughter clown sized boots so she would not make BMQ and eliminate her from a career with the Canadian military!

After all, it had about the lies by RCMP Staff Sgt John Thomas Randle in it!

Canadian Forces Shilo Base Surgeon Major Salsman after recording “blisters and hot spots” on left and right foot – he then lied about the matter in his letter

You can imagine turning up at “boot camp” with these “clown sized” boots and expected to perform tough physical activity!

In any event, Terry Mallenby’s daughter turned up at “boot camp” in July, 2006.

Surprise, surprise ... soon after, on 05 July, 2006 the medical unit at Shilo Manitoba base camp recorded “blisters and hot spots” on left and right foot -- Signed by Canadian Forces Shilo Base Surgeon Major Salsman [See next].

Also recorded in the medical unit at Shilo Manitoba base camp on 05 July, 2006 “on left foot there is a 1” long friction mark on the posterior aspect of the foot slightly proximal from the ‘calcaneus(?)’. There is also a blister on the plantar aspect of the foot located on the heel. It appears to be relatively deep. On the right foot there is a similar friction mark as described on the left foot. There are hot spots located on the bottom of both heels” -- Signed by Canadian Forces Shilo Base Surgeon Major Salsman [see next].

As also recorded in the medical unit at Shilo Manitoba base camp on 05 July, 2006 “friction marks, hot spots and blisters caused by grossly oversized combat boots” -- Signed by Canadian Forces Shilo Base Surgeon Major Salsman [see next].

As also recorded in the medical unit at Shilo Manitoba base camp on 05 July, 2006 “enquire about new boots, should be fitted with orthotics, and dressed friction marks, dressed with ‘hypafix(?)’ and ‘mepore(?)’ -- Signed by Canadian Forces Shilo Base Surgeon Major Salsman [see next].

The end result, Terry Mallenby’s daughter was taken from her BMQ course and admitted to Brandon Regional Health Centre on 13 July, 2006 with an infected toe because of the grossly oversized boots she had been issued by my 748 Comm unit “area around blister reddened ... pus”!

Finally, as recorded in the medical unit at Shilo Manitoba base camp on 14 July, 2006 it indicated that Terry Mallenby’s daughter had been “in emergency last night” and then referred to a “blister infected right foot”!

Terry Mallenby’s daughter was prescribed an antibiotic for her infected foot!

That all seemed straight forward, but then is, until Canadian Forces Shilo Base Surgeon Major Salsman lied about it in his letter dated 17 July, 2006!

In it, Canadian Forces Shilo Base Surgeon Major Salsman who says “I am unsure what is wrong with this lady”!

Another liar!

CEPHALEXIN - ORAL (cef-a-LEX-in)

COMMON BRAND NAME(S): Keflex

USES: This medication is a cephalosporin-type antibiotic used to treat a wide variety of bacterial infections (e.g., skin, bone and genitourinary tract infections).

OTHER USES: This drug may also be used before dental procedures in patients with artificial heart valves to prevent serious infection of the heart lining (bacterial endocarditis).

HOW TO USE: Take this medication by mouth usually every 6 or 12 hours, or as directed by your doctor. You may take this medicine with food if stomach upset occurs.
Antibiotics work best when the amount of medicine in your body is kept at a constant level. Therefore, take this drug at evenly spaced intervals.
Continue to take this medication until the full-prescribed amount is finished even if symptoms disappear after a few days. Stopping this medication too early may allow bacteria to continue to grow, which may result in a relapse of the infection.
Inform your doctor if your condition persists or worsens.

SIDE EFFECTS: Stomach upset, headache, fatigue, dizziness, or diarrhea may occur. If any of these effects persist or worsen, notify your doctor or pharmacist promptly.
Tell your doctor immediately if any of these unlikely but serious side effects occur: mental/mood changes.
Tell your doctor immediately if any of these highly unlikely but very serious side effects occur: stomach/abdominal pain, persistent nausea/vomiting, yellowing eyes or skin, dark urine, new signs of infection (e.g., persistent sore throat or fever), easy bruising/bleeding, change in the amount of urine.
This medication may rarely cause a severe intestinal condition (pseudomembranous colitis) due to a resistant bacteria. This condition may occur while receiving therapy or even weeks after treatment has stopped. Do not use anti-diarrhea products or narcotic pain medications if you have the following symptoms because each product may make them worse. Tell your doctor immediately if you develop persistent diarrhea, abdominal or stomach pain/cramping, or blood/mucus in your

MEDICAL STATUS

PRIVATE

1. I have been asked to provide medical input into this patient's condition and use of medical services while on course here. One Medical Officer followed her until he asked me to review her case because he could not find anything wrong.
2. Private arrived in Shilo on the long weekend in July 2006 and first reported to the MIR on 04 July 2006. There were almost daily (seven visits in 10 days with one weekend) visits for a variety of vague yet disturbing physical complaints. None of which we could find a cause for and mysteriously went away. At one point she asked to stay over night (we have no holding capability). During the stretch of numerous visits she even went to the local Emergency Department. No diagnosis was found then either. Once weekend sick parade started she came to this as well. On the day she did not come, she called the duty medical team to report nefarious symptoms. She was seen again that Monday and still all of her tests were negative as was her exam.
3. I am unsure what is wrong with this lady but I suspect she needs to return to unit and I am quite sure she is unable to tolerate a military environment. She has easily spent more time in my clinic then on her course.
4. If further information is required, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned at local 3150.

Terry Mallenby sued for lost wages of 1.3 million dollars [with actuarial evidence] and the first out-of-court settlement that the Federal Government of Canada and the RCMP offered him was $150,000?

The Terry Mallenby told the lawyer that wasn't enough, and the second out-of-court settlement that the Federal Government of Canada and the RCMP offered him was $275,000?

The Terry Mallenby said that represented a moral victory over “the bastards” and said accept it!

As far as the Terry Mallenby is concerned, the Federal Government of Canada and the RCMP still owe him the remaining 1 million dollars, together with a sizeable amount for his wife and children who have themselves been harassed by the Federal Government of Canada and the RCMP!

As for the current author can tell, all he can say is that there are apparently many “lying shit-heads” working for the Federal Government of Canada and the RCMP and that there is enough material out there in the press about them:

Appendix 2

Terry Mallenby went off his Canada Pension Plan disability pension first approved in 1979, thinking the RCMP harassment may have finished?

However, he was unable to cover-up for an apparent “sleeze ball”, as cited in the current author’s new book:

As cited, this ‘little guy’ who lost a job after blowing the whistle on the Whitbourne Centre to Premier Clyde Wells and Social Services Minister Kay Young, had warned these two “idiot” politicians of the dangers at the Whitbourne Centre!¹

However, they wouldn’t listen [just like all the Whistleblowers cited in this book and elsewhere²] and got rid of their own whistleblower only to find out a year later that a tragedy did occur at the Whitbourne Centre!

With the Newfoundland there was a Whistleblower who wrote to Newfoundland Premier Clyde Wells and to Newfoundland Social Services Minister Kay Young telling them that the security at the maximum security youth centre, the Whitbourne Centre, was lax and should be improved.³

What did Newfoundland Premier Clyde Wells and Newfoundland Social Services Minister Kay Young do?

They didn’t listen to the Whistleblower; instead they fabricated some cock-and-bull excuse and got rid of him, just like all the government ministers and managers cited in this book and elsewhere.⁴

And what did that “sleeze-ball” Social Services Minister Kay Young do; she even violated the violation of the Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act to make sure this whistleblowers was good-and-gone!

Can’t have anyone blowing the whistle on political / government incompetence can we:

Vol. XLII No. 62

<http://www.assembly.nl.ca/business/hansard/ga42session2/94-11-16.htm>

MR. FITZGERALD: Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

My question is to the Minister of Social Services. I want to ask the Minister of Social Services why she released information on the employment history of a Mr. xx, the former operations manager at the Newfoundland and Labrador Youth Centre, in clear violation of the Freedom of Information Act and in violation I believe of the Privacy Act?

MR. FITZGERALD: Mr. Speaker, not only did the minister violate the Freedom of Information and Privacy Act but she also gave false information, Mr. Speaker, about Mr. xx's employment history. The minister said that Mr. xx had been fired for reasons related to job performance. The official record of employment the department gave to Mr. xx and to Employment Canada says he was dismissed for breach of trust and loss of confidence. Now I ask the minister, did the minister know, Mr. Speaker, that she was giving false information in her press release? Will she now admit Mr. xx was fired because he blew the whistle and disclosed the information as to what was actually happening out at the Newfoundland and Labrador Youth Centre?

Now comes that "sleaze-ball" Newfoundland Premier Clyde Wells:

November 17, 1994

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY PROCEEDINGS

Vol. XLII No. 63

<http://www.assembly.nl.ca/business/hansard/ga42session2/94-11-17.htm>

MR. W. MATTHEWS: Thank you very much, Mr. Speaker.

I have a question for the Premier, following up on the line of questioning by the member for Bonavista South yesterday dealing with the Minister of Social Services Kay Young. Now, on November 8, 1994 the Minister of Social Services Kay Young issued a public statement, a written press release, where she referred to the dismissal of one Mr. xx at the Newfoundland and Labrador Youth Center at Whitbourne. In that she talked about the reasons for dismissal, job performance and work history.

I want to ask the Premier, in light of the minister's public statement that is clearly a violation of the Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act, but particularly the Freedom Information Act, section 10 (1) (b): Does the Premier consider this conduct and behavior of the Minister of Social Services Kay Young to be acceptable?

MR. W. MATTHEWS: - and in that written, deliberate statement pertaining to the situation, she said: Mr. xx was dismissed for work related problems, job performance. Now the record of employment belonging to Mr. xx states that he was dismissed for breach of trust and loss of confidence, so in essence, the minister in her statement, issued a false statement. The reason was inaccurate and incorrect, so I want to ask the Premier: does he feel that the conduct of the Minister of Social Services

Kay Young, in issuing a false, public statement is behaviour and conduct acceptable for a minister of his Administration or, is he going to allow the standards and behaviour and conduct of the ministers to sink to an all-time low in this Province, where, individual privacy will no longer be protected?

What happened a year later, due to the lax security, one of the youth committed suicide and a stink was raised about Newfoundland Premier Clyde Wells and Newfoundland Social Services Minister Kay Young ignoring these Whistleblower warnings!

Dear

Your father's email to the Minister of Health has been referred to our office as Health Insurance BC is responsible for the administration of the Medical Services Plan and PharmaCare benefits.

Our records show that you were receiving Medical Services Plan (MSP) coverage as a dependent on your father's coverage until you turned 25 years of age (January 31, 2012) as our office was informed you were in full-time attendance at school/university.

When a child is no longer eligible for coverage as a dependent under their parent's plan, separate coverage is established for the child. Premium free coverage is provided until the following June 30th, by which time the child should have completed an application for premium assistance to determine his/her eligibility for premium assistance. An application for premium assistance is mailed to the child during spring of the year in which his/her premium-free coverage will end.

A separate account was established for you effective February 1, 2012 and an application for premium assistance was mailed to you at the most recent address on file for you while you were covered on your father's plan. When a signed application for premium assistance was not received from you, your premium rate was adjusted to the full rate effective July 1, 2012. MSP premium invoices were sent to the same address, 13-855 Howard Ave, Nanaimo, B.C. V9R 5V4.

Now that we have been informed that you have not resided in British Columbia since 2009, your MSP coverage has been cancelled. Since the exact date of your move outside British Columbia has not been provided, your coverage has been cancelled retroactive to December 31, 2009. There are no MSP premiums outstanding on your account.

I trust this clarifies the standing of your account.

Yours truly,

Newfoundland - The Lieutenant-Governor in Council may designate probation officers appointed under the Department of Social Services Act to act as probation officers for the purposes of this Act and may designate probation officers appointed under this Act to carry out the duties of probation officers for the purposes of the Department of Social Services Act.*

Jamie Masters, Early Resolution Advisor, Canadian Human Rights Commission - When am I going to receive your letter explaining why the Canadian Human Rights Act does not apply to me?

Jamie Masters also said that so what if a false story [based on RCMP lies at the 1976 inquest] is floating around the Internet on Sergey Brin's Google web sites – these things happen – tough luck?

Jamie Masters, would you also include that explanation in your letter to me!
